Here's a description of the interview:

Suns One On One: Aaron Nelson

Suns One On One host Greg Esposito sat down with Suns head athletic trainer, only the second in the team's 45 year history, Aaron Nelson to discuss his almost 20 seasons with the organization. Find out which former Suns fan favorite is his brother-in-law and how two familiar names in Suns history almost became accountants rather than basketball players. Hear all that and much more on this week's episode.

This is a fun interview for both fans of Suns history as well as those interested in the guy behind the best medical staff in the business. Listen here .
