I'll tell you one thing. The NBA has no respect for deadlines or drafts as made apparent by the Phoenix Suns trading their entire roster yesterday and turning #SUNSRANK on its ears!

With the trades of Marcin Gortat , Kendall Marshall, Shannon Brown, and Malcolm Lee to the Washington Wizards this is a much different looking team than it was just 24 hours ago.

The initial rankings had five young roster hopefuls that had virtually no chance of making the roster, or at least three fifths of them, but now the roster stands at 14 and they can all call Phoenix home. The game is the game so naturally, the rankings move on.

Let's get to it.
