

Phoenix Suns NBA 2014 Las Vegas Summer League Schedule Announced

Written by
Thursday, 12 June 2014 11:08 -

The Suns will participate in the Summer League in Las Vegas next month. Here is their schedule

The 2014 NBA Summer League will take place from July 5 - July 11th at the Amway Center in Orlando Florida, and July 11th - July 21 at the Cox Pavillion and Thomas and Mack Center in Las Vegas, Nevada.

As always, the Phoenix Suns will participate in the Las Vegas Summer League this summer, sending their younger players, rookies, and free agent try-out hopefuls to compete. Last year, the Suns came in second place after losing the championship game to the Golden State Warriors

. With a healthy

Alex Len

and a more experienced

Archie Goodwin

this year, among others, they could be set to have another impressive showing.

The Las Vegas schedule for the participating teams was announced today. Here's when the Suns play:

Saturday July 12

COX Pavilion 5 PM (MST) -- Phoenix vs. Golden State

Phoenix Suns NBA 2014 Las Vegas Summer League Schedule Announced

Written by

Thursday, 12 June 2014 11:08 -

Sunday July 13

COX Pavilion 7 PM (MST) -- Milwaukee vs. Phoenix

Tuesday July 15

COX Pavilion 5 PM (MST) -- Philadelphia vs. Phoenix

July 16th - July 21st - Playoffs (determined by seeding).

The Suns will play at least five games and as many as seven if they can get to the championship once again. The Suns haven't announced their roster yet, but you can bet that the rookies will be in attendance as long as they are healthy. In addition, P.J. Tucker announced that he would participate once again if his contract is worked out by then.

NBA TV will broadcast all 67 games, including 38 live. You will also have the option of purchasing NBA Summer League Pass which usually costs about $20 if you want to see all the games live on the internet.

For the full schedule of all the games, click here .